December 8, 2014

Product Power supplies and 3S Li-Po DC Balance Chargers found exclusively in HobbyZone Super Cub S RTF (HBZ8100) and BNF (HBZ8180) Products not marked with a green circular label on the power supply and charger.

Defect Issue This product recall addresses a problem with the power supply and 3S Li-Po DC balance charger included in the Super Cub S RTF and BNF. There is a possibility that the power supply and charger could cause damage to products or start fires, which could result in injury. The affected power supplies and chargers are found exclusively in the HobbyZone Super Cub S RTF (HBZ8100) and BNF (HBZ8180) aircraft. Only power supplies and chargers without a green circular label are subject to this recall.

What To Do Discontinue use of the power supply and charger immediately. Follow the steps below to identify and return the product to Horizon Hobby for a replacement charger.

Corrective Action

1. Check the power supply and charger for your aircraft. If a green circular label does not appear on the power supply or charger (see example below), the power supply and charger must be returned to Horizon Hobby.
